Alamos Gold Inc. Appoints Mr. Eduardo Luna to the Board of Directors and Provides Notice of Release of Third Quarter 2007 Financial Results and Conference Call

Toronto, Ontario - Alamos Gold Inc. (TSX: AGI) ("Alamos" or the "Company") announces that Mr. Eduardo Luna has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company. Mr. Luna is Chairman of Silver Wheaton and has recently retired as President of Goldcorp's Mexican mining operations. Alamos' Board will be strengthened by Mr. Luna's extensive business experience and knowledge of the mining industry, predominantly in Mexico.

Mr. Luna holds a degree in Advanced Management from Harvard University, an MBA from the Instituto Tecnológico de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey and a Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering from Universidad de Guanajuato.

Mr. Luna has seventeen years of experience as President of Luismin. In addition, he has held various executive positions with Minera Autlan for seven years and with Industrias Penoles for five years.

Mr. Luna is President of the Consulting Board for the School of Mines, Universidad de Guanajuato and member of the advisory Boards of the School of Mines of both Mexico University and Zacatecas University and serves on the Board of Directors of other mining companies. Mr. Luna has served as President of the Mexican Chamber of Mines on two occasions and as President of The Silver Institute from 2002-2003.

The Alamos' Board of directors and management welcome Mr. Luna to the Company's Board. His recognized leadership in the Mexican mining industry will be a valuable asset to the Board and will assist in the development of management's corporate strategy.

In conjunction with this appointment the Company has granted a director's option for the purchase up to a total of 300,000 common shares in the capital of Alamos at a price of Cdn$7.00 per share. The options granted are exercisable for a five-year period.
